

Colonel (R) Greg Camp was commissioned a 2LT of infantry from West Point in 1968. He served as a rifle platoon leader and company commander in the 1st Cavalry Division in Viet Nam in 1969-1970. During his career he commanded at the company, battalion and Brigade level. His staff assignments include battalion, brigade and division level positions in personnel and operations. He was the senior observer controller for the mechanized infantry team at the National Training Center. He also taught math at West Point and was the infantry exchange officer to the Royal Australian Infantry Centre. His last assignment was as the Chief of Staff of the United States Army Infantry Center and Ft. Benning.

His awards include the Legion of Merit w/2OLC, the Bronze Star w/"V" and 2OLC, the Air Medal w/OLC, the Army Commendation Medal w/"V" and OLC and the Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry w/Bronze Palm.

After retiring from the Army he was a Senior Vice President with Columbus Bank and Trust Company and later a Senior Director with Total Systems Services. In 2002 joined a team of Columbus citizen with the goal of creating a National Infantry Museum. He retired as President Emeritus of the National Infantry Foundation in January 2018.

He has served as the Chairman or President of several organizations to include the Military Affairs Committee of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce, the Civilian Military Counsel, the Chattahoochee Valley Chapter of AUSA, the House of Heroes, the Deimel Ball, The Rotary club of Columbus, and St. Anne's church stewardship committee. He has also been a board member of the Springer Opera House, the Girl Scouts of Historic Georgia, the Chattahoochee Valley Sports Hall of Fame Committee and the Boys and Girls Club of Columbus.

He has a BS from the United States Military Academy, a MS in Mathematics from Georgia Tech and an MBA from Long Island University. He is married to the former Joan Gipe of Atlanta, Georgia and they have 3 grown children and four grandchildren.